The Cromwell Cup Regatta

About the Cromwell Cup

Riverside Boat Club (RBC) is proud to host the 15th annual Cromwell Cup regatta, set to take place on Sunday, July 8th, 2018 at Riverside's boathouse in Cambridge, MA, along the Charles River and Memorial Drive.

An all-day event, the Cromwell Cup is the largest summer regatta on the Charles River, hosting well over 700 athletes from 9 different US states of all ages (16 through 70+) and skill levels.

Named after RBC member and 1936 Olympian Seymour Cromwell, the Cromwell Cup is a 1000-meter rowing race between Weeks Bridge and Magazine Beach on the Charles River. The event is run entirely by Riverside volunteers and encourages friendly competition and promotes awareness of the Boston-Cambridge communities.

Goals for the 2018 Cromwell Cup

Short Term

- Support the growing rowing community by offering competitive events
- Raise awareness of RBC's role in the community

Long Term

- Invest in the future growth of the Cromwell Cup Regatta
- Maintain RBC as a training center for aspiring US National Team athletes
- Engage the Cambridge community in a family-friendly event that promotes a healthy lifestyle

At the 2017 Cromwell Cup,

Over 700 athletes of all ages competed, representing

39 different boat clubs, from

9 different US states.

About Riverside Boat Club
